

Hong Kong in a Box High School Campaign 2008

A group of F.6 Visual Arts and Liberal Studies students joined a high school campaign 'Glocalization Project-Hong Kong in a Box' organized by AIESEC-LC-CUHK. They attended a series of courses on 'Glocalization' and installation art, and designed two boxes on the topic of Hong Kong culture. Their designs won the 1st runner-up in the campaign and were exhibited on 13th April 2008 at the Olympian City.
