

The first term English Reading Program has started since early October. Form one classes take turns reading at English Centre during lunch time with the company and guidance of Big Brothers and Big Sisters of English Society.

