

Form Four Game Stalls

Various game stalls have been conducted by Form four students in English Centre since November. All the classes explained themselves very clearly with patience and interacted with Junior Form students in a lively and harmonious manner. Our students spoke up to standard English and the younger ones were encouraged to speak more English. The games were interesting and successfully drew participants' attention.

